VIKINGS TO VISIT VA MEDICAL CENTER TO SALUTE VETERANS

Eden Prairie, MN (November 7, 2011) – On Tuesday, November 8, three days before Veterans Day, Greg Camarillo, Chad Greenway, Everson Griffen, Tyrone McKenzie and John Sullivan will visit the VA Medical Center (One Veterans Drive, Minneapolis, MN 55417) from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. The players will visit patients in the Physical Therapy Clinic as well as other various hospital rooms.

Tuesday's visit is part of the Vikings partnership with UnitedHealthcare's "Do Good. Live Well." campaign. Throughout the month of November, the two organizations will partner in a series of events intended to fight hunger issues facing senior Minnesotans (more information to follow).

This is the 11th consecutive year the Vikings and Veterans of Foreign War have partnered on a community outreach project.

For more information on Tuesday's event, please contact Vikings Executive Director of Community Relations/Youth Football Brad Madson at 952.828.6590.
